

Kaplan International College Christchurch

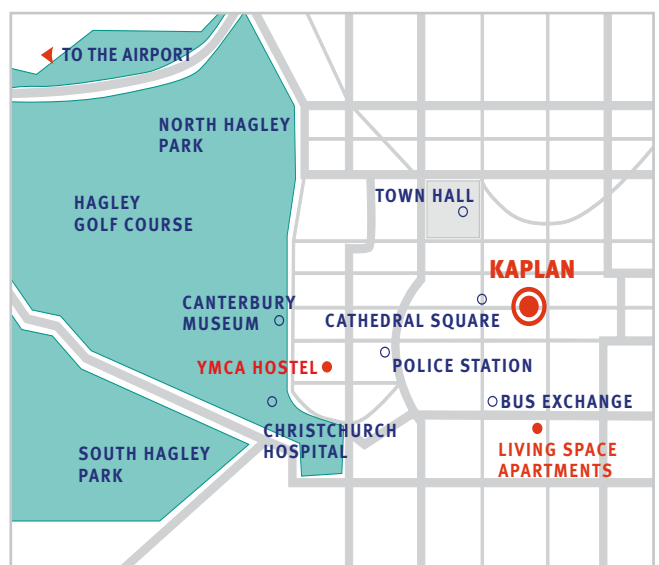

Welcome to Kaplan International College Christchurch. The college is located in a beautiful 7-storey, art deco building which also houses the Design and Arts College of New Zealand as well as the Kaplan International College language college. Established in 1979, Kaplan International Colleges is the oldest language college in Christchurch and enjoys an excellent reputation for providing a high quality of tuition and student care.

Christchurch is known as the 'Garden City' as there are many beautiful gardens and parks. The city also boasts lovely architecture and historic buildings. There are many restaurants, nightclubs and bars for an exciting nightlife and Christchurch often holds festivals and events, especially in the summertime, that students can enjoy.

Kaplan International College Christchurch is ideally situated in the city centre next to Cathedral Square and within a moment's walk from cafes, bars, shops, libraries and central bus routes.
